OUR QUALIFICATIONS

The Kacie Kirkland Agency has been serving the Texarkana community and surrounding areas for nine years now and is a Farmers Toppers Club Achievement Award winner for multiple years! Only the top 7% of Farmers agents qualify for this achievement year after year! Kacie's agency is fully staffed with licensed agents in Texas and Arkansas and they specialize in all lines of personal insurance, business insurance, life insurance and financial services.

OUR MISSION

Kacie and her staff strive to provide excellent customer service in a relaxed, pressure-free environment for their prospective clients. Their ability to present the best possible options and sound advice without pressuring customers creates a sales relationship based on mutual respect and one in which referrals are the best source of business. A yearly Farmers Friendly Review gives clients a chance to feel appreciated and gives Kacie the chance to make sure all policy information is up to date.

WHY CLIENTS CHOOSE US

The Kacie Kirkland Agency strives to make insurance a positive topic in every household. Insurance is confusing for most everyone, so they like to spend a little extra time educating all prospective clients about what they are paying for. The general atmosphere in their office is warm and welcoming. You may even get loved on by Kacie's Miniature Schnauzer mascot, Louie, when you visit the office!

A few interesting facts about Kacie. Kacie grew up in Atlanta, Texas and attended college at Ole Miss where she majored in accounting and finance. This was the perfect foundation for her insurance career! She has an extensive background in being self employed and working with the public, which helps her thrive in the insurance business. She loves to spend time with her family, travel every minute she can, experience great food and shop her heart out! Stop in and get to know everyone in her office soon; you won't regret that you did!
